

THE CHARLES RENNIE MACKINTOSH HOUSE 78 DERNGATE

Centenary Events

It's 100 years since Charles Rennie Mackintosh redesigned 78 Derngate for W.J Bassett-Lowke.

A "once in a century" chance to join in this special anniversary. Our sparkling centenary events offer unique opportunities with leading experts who will share their stories and skills.

Book now - places are limited ! 78derngate.org.uk/100

16 Feb 2017 19.00

Making Mackintosh: The mystery of the striped wallpaper - why we used fabric.

Mary Schoeser, renowned textile and wallpaper historian, has worked with the V&A, English Heritage, NT and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She will provide an in-depth look at her fascinating investigation of 78 Derngate's decoration and its recreation seen by visitors today.

24 Feb 2017 19.00

Making Mackintosh: Stencilling Mackintosh

Elisabeth Viguie-Culshaw, one of the world's leading specialists in Charles Rennie Mackintosh's wall stencil designs, will discuss the challenges faced when re-creating these complex works. Her stunning work at Glasgow's "The House for an Art Lover" and "The Mackintosh House" will be examined in detail.

25th Feb &
18th Mar 2017
10.00

Making Mackintosh: Mackintosh 1 day Stencil Workshop

Learn the art of Mackintosh stencilling in this unique masterclass. Elisabeth Viguie-Culshaw will guide you through wet and dry stencilling techniques to recreate similar friezes to those of Mackintosh. Learn how to design, make and use stencils in Mackintosh's Glasgow rose and later 'deco' styles as seen at 78 Derngate.

29 Mar 2017 19.00

Making Mackintosh: Making the furniture for 78 Derngate

This talk by Professor Jake Kaner will explore some of the interesting and un-anticipated avenues found in replicating the unique furniture designed by Mackintosh with steerage from his discerning client Bassett Lowke.

Making Mackintosh: Rescuing 78 Derngate

A joint talk by Sylvia Pynches - original curator of 78 Derngate and Les Patterson, Company Secretary of The 78 Derngate Trust and closely involved with the project from its inception.

12 Apr 2017 19.00

This will be an opportunity to hear at first hand, from those directly involved, how this historic house was saved, funded, restored and opened to the public.

22 & 23 Apr 2017
19.00

"Whyne & Toshie 1914-28"

Letters between Charles Rennie Mackintosh, W.J. Bassett-Lowke and Mackintosh's wife, Margaret form the inspiration of this unique one act play to be performed inside the actual Mackintosh interiors of 78 Derngate. An unforgettable experience. Written by Rob Kendall.

Evening events: £15 - includes wine or soft drink.

One day workshop: £70 - includes refreshments and stencil kit.

All participants will receive a return ticket to visit 78 Derngate.

Bookings and further details: 78derngate/100

Organised by The Friends of 78 Derngate.

Charles Rennie Mackintosh & The Great War

"A feast of Charles Rennie Mackintosh design."

This major exhibition will tell the story of his late career and how it was impacted by World War One.

With stunning exhibits and designs, some unseen for a century, from major collections. 1st Feb - 29th Apr 2017

82 Derngate
Northampton NN1 1UH
events@78derngate.org.uk

